DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

This notice explains your rights and our obligations with respect to the information we hold about you. This is necessary due to the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR), which came into force on 25 May 2018.

The personal details which you provide and which we store on our database may be used for:

- 1) Informing you or our staff of issues relating to your Young Person (i.e. to contact you in the event of an emergency).
- 2) Informing you of issues relating to the Project in general (i.e. to let you know when the Project will be closed).
- 2) Providing attendance and utilisation statistics to funders and statutory bodies.

We will never disclose any of your personal information to a third party unless we are legally required to do so.

All such information as we hold digitally is stored on a password protected database administered solely by ourselves.

We are legally obliged, upon request, to provide you with all the information we hold about you.

You are entitled to request further information from us on how we use and store your data.

You may withdraw your consent for us to continue holding your data at any time. In this case we will remove your information from our records as soon as possible. Any complaints regarding the way we handle your data should be addressed to the Gauntlet Management Committee at enquiries@gauntlet.biz.
